

The Hassan Hathout Foundation

You are cordially invited to the 11th Hassan Hathout Foundation's interfaith event

For the Love of Tomorrow

This year's theme is

Spiritual Resilience in a Changing World

Sunday, March 15th, 2020

The Huntington Library and Gardens, Haaga Hall
1151 Oxford Road, San Marino, California 91108

11:00 a.m. Check-in and Light Refreshments
Program begins promptly at noon

MC: Hassaan Shahawy

Grandson of Hassan Hathout. Student at Harvard Law School

Dr. Eba Hathout

Founding President, The Hassan Hathout Foundation
Professor & Chief of Pediatric Diabetes & Endocrinology, Loma
Linda University

David Myers, PhD

Professor & Chair of Jewish History, UCLA

Ahmed Younis, JD, PhD

Assistant Professor of Integrated Educational Studies, Chapman
University

Fr. James Heft, PhD, S. M.

Professor of Religion & President of Advanced Catholic Studies, USC

A Question and Answer Panel Will Follow
Registration is free but required by March 1

We respectfully request no infants or children under 14 at this event

REGISTER NOW

Please allow up to 30 minutes for on-site parking and walking to the entrance
No fee is required for parking or access to Haaga Hall

The Hassan Hathout Foundation (www.hhlf.org) is a 501(C)(3) independent nonprofit educational organization whose mission is to spread the message of "Love in God".

Tax-deductible contributions can be made by mail to Hassan Hathout Foundation,
PO Box 609, South Pasadena, CA 9103